

I believe the wisconsin no-call list and associated regulations are working fine. They should remain in place and not be weakened by requests from powerful lobby groups.